

Mir Centre for Peace AT SELKIRK COLLEGE

Summer Institute

Culture and Reconciliation

July 11 - 12, 2011

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: EDUCATORS • ACTIVISTS • INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKERS • GENERAL PUBLIC

Engaging in Restorative Justice through Local and Indigenous Knowledge

Explore reconciliation, healing and restorative justice by examining our local and indigenous knowledge and learn from diverse knowledge bases to build a foundational capacity for peacemaking at the interpersonal, community and international level.

THEMES INCLUDE

- Local awareness to global action
- Decolonizing our world view

Understand how local history builds the foundation for our peace work by participating in:

- Field trips to the Lemon Creek Archeological site, the Sinixt occupation site at Vallican and the Alex Christian memorial stone in Castlegar.
- Presentations by local educators and activists
- Learning of local cultural reconciliation

FACILITATORS

Marilyn James, Aboriginal Advisor at Selkirk College and appointed spokesperson for the Sinixt Nation Society

Myler Wilkinson (PhD), instructor of Peace Studies, Selkirk College

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

The Summer Institute fee is $200. This includes activities, travel and lunch for both days.

Accommodation is available at Kekuli House residence at the Castlegar campus for an additional fee.

To register, please phone 250.365.1208.

LOCATION: Mir Centre for Peace
Selkirk College, Castlegar campus
(301 Frank Beinder Way)

DATE: July 11 and 12, 2011

TIME: 9 am - 5 pm

For more information please contact Marilyn James at mjames@selkirk.ca,
250.365.1357 or Randy Janzen at 250.365.1234.

Selkirk  College