

Selkirk Learning Book Club 2011-12

HAVE YOU GOT A PASSION FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING?
READ THE SELKIRK LEARNING BOOK SELECTIONS FOR THIS YEAR AND ATTEND ONE OR ALL OF THE FABULOUS EVENTS!

EVENTS All events open to public.

DISCUSSION GROUPS

Fall 2011

Spring 2012

Noon hour discussion groups on using social and emotional intelligence in the classroom. The discussions take place at Student Access Centres on the Castlegar, Silver King and Tenth Street campuses.

DEBATERS

IS THE INTERNET MAKING US SMARTER?

Fall 2011

Watch Selkirk College Instructors impersonate authors Nicholas Carr (internet doubter) and Clay Shirky (internet hopeful). Be part of the audience applause that chooses the winning debator! Follow the debate on Twitter in advance of the event at twitter.com/#!/FrankenSmarter.

VIRTUAL DISCUSSION WITH AUTHOR STEPHEN BROOKFIELD

February 2012

Join a Virtual Discussion with author Stephen Brookfield of St. Thomas University on the classic The Skillful Teacher: On Technique, Trust and Responsiveness in the Classroom. Participants will come prepared on chapter 5: Understanding and Responding to the Emotions of Learning and chapter 14: Surviving Emotionally.

THE MILLENIALS

March, 2012

Discuss author Neil Howe's observations of college parents and students of today. Do Howe and Strauss' division of North American youth into eras such as Generation Xers or Millennials make sense? Student panels will be held exploring what students' hopes are for teaching and learning.

SELKIRK LEARNING BOOK SELECTION

