KATHLEEN PINCKNEY NURSING INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION AWARD

The Kathleen Pinckney Nursing International Education Bursary supports the pursuit of international experiences that enrich a student's understanding of the cultural, community and industry complexities that affect health care at home and around the world.

To be eligible for the award, the applicant must:

- Be a student enrolled in the Selkirk College Nursing Program and;
- Be participating in an international educational activity that includes international travel and;
- Demonstrate a need for financial assistance to participate in the international educational activity.

Please submit the following documents with this form:

- One-page summary of the International Project/Experience
- One-page summary of the perceived benefits of the project/experience in relation to the student, the Nursing Program and to Selkirk College
- One-page response to the questions listed at the bottom of this form
- One-page calendar-style draft itinerary
- One-page Excel budget (request template provided by Financial Aid)

Do not forget to have an instructor AND your faculty supervisor for your international experience sign off on your application in the appropriate section below

Amount requested: _____
Maximum of $1,000 or no more than half of the total required costs of the project/experience.

QUESTIONS TO ANSWER

Please describe your personal motivation(s) for participating in the international experience.

ADVANCEMENT

Please describe your personal aspiration(s) for the international experience and what you are most excited about learning.

Please describe your personal financial situation and how the award will support your participation in the trip. If you are electing to share the award monies with your group should you be successful (see below), you do not need to complete this question.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE REPORT

Successful applicants must submit an evaluation of the international experience to the Advancement & Communications Office (sgobin@selkirk.ca) within one month of the completion date of the trip.

The evaluation must include:

- A 2-page story of your most profound learning moment of the international experience. Paint the scene for us: describe the setting, the people involved, the activity or spontaneous experience, and what specific interaction, observation or feeling led to your learning and understanding.
- A 1-page summary of learning outcomes
