

Selkirk College

Languages - French & Spanish UNIVERSITY ARTS & SCIENCES

Studying another language and culture will give you a unique opportunity to see yourself and your own culture from a different perspective.

OVERVIEW

Learning to understand and speak more than one language is considered an important part of a broad liberal arts and sciences education. Many universities encourage or require proficiency in a foreign language for students seeking degrees.

Speaking another language can open the door to a myriad of possibilities here and abroad.

FRENCH COURSES

- French 102: Beginner's French I
- French 103: Beginner's French II
- French 112: First Year French I
- French 113: First Year French II
- French 122: Contemporary French Language & Literature I
- French 123: Contemporary French Language & Literature II

SPANISH COURSES

- Spanish 102: Beginner's Spanish I
- Spanish 103: Beginner's Spanish II
- Spanish 112: First Year Spanish I
- Spanish 113: First Year Spanish II
- Spanish 122: Contemporary Spanish Language & Literature I
- Spanish 123: Contemporary Spanish Language & Literature II

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The study of languages helps prepare you to work in many types of jobs. For example, combining languages with the study of business can help prepare you for jobs in international commerce while combining language with law studies could lead to a career in international law.

Among the very many professions which may be enhanced by knowledge of other languages are:

- Business
- Education
- Engineering
- Interpreting/Translating
- Journalism
- Law
- Medicine
- Music and Theater
- Social Work
- Tourism/Travel Industry

HOW TO APPLY

Apply online or visit one of our campus locations.

selkirk.ca/apply

FOR MORE INFORMATION

José Padilla, Languages Instructor

jpadilla@selkirk.ca or phone 1.888.953.1133, ext. 21473

Tracy Punchard, School Chair

tpunchard@selkirk.ca or phone 250.365.1318

AT A GLANCE

LENGTH OF STUDY:

Up to one year

ACCREDITATION:

General Associate of Arts and Transfer to BA

CAMPUS:

Castlegar

