

Do you love to cook?

The tourism and hospitality industry in British Columbia is red hot, with projections for growth continuing to be high. Selkirk College Tenth Street Campus in Nelson BC, has a number of programs that provide top quality training and education for those looking to enter an industry that is need of hard working individuals ready for exciting careers.

16 Students = 40+ jobs

The boom in today's hospitality industry is demanding more cooks, with guaranteed jobs. Graduated students are being courted "three to four" jobs each, with employers recruiting on site during the school year. With the low Canadian dollar, resorts and restaurants, are struggling to attract skilled staff.
