“ Selkirk gave me the knowledge base I needed. My instructors invested their own time and interest in my education and that alone gave me an incentive to push myself to do the best work possible and the confidence to pursue the work I truly love. ”

Carla Sinclair – 2006 Alumna of the Digital Arts and New Media program and 2007 Alumna of the International Digital Film program

Originally from New Brunswick, Carla picked up and moved west to B.C. to fulfill her life-long dream to make films and work in the Digital Arts industry. She has been a visual storyteller since she picked up a video camera at the age of 12.

Carla took the Digital Arts and New Media and International Digital Film programs at Selkirk and now works with Empty Cup Media, a video/photo company in Whitby, Ontario.

She has creatively fused her interests and produces promotional, educational, corporate and wedding videos, documentary films and professional photography for a living.
